OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 13 December 1972

5X1	I. Met with Robert Blum, Senate Foreign Relations Committee Research Assistant, and gave him a copy of "World Oil 1971 Facts and Figures" which he requested yesterday. Blum told me that in his new work with oil he will be needing other materials which he has been told are within the province of the Agency. He also asked whether determination has been made with regard to declassification and release of the OSS documents that he had selected for declassification some weeks ago. I told him that I hoped we would have a final determination within the next 24 hours. Blum reiterated that he is now getting calls from the Committee from the checks. I thanked him and told him I would	ront office in the nature of hourly
